PARCELS POST LAW IN EFFECT JANUARY FIRST.

The parcel post law went into effect yesterday, and the indications are that it will prove of great benefit to the people. Postmaster Price has made arrangements to handle the local business which he expects will be of considerable magnitude. Yesterday morning the first resident to avail himself of the new law was Gabe Einstein who sent a package of merchandise through the rural delivery. Edward Symonds followed, sending a parcel to Mendocino county. The closing of the postoffice at an early hour on account of the holiday prevented a larger business.

The following "Parcel Post Pointers" are offered to the public:

Ordinary stamps are not good on parcel post, nor are parcel post stamps good on other mail matter, like letters. Either kind of mail with the wrong kind of stamps on it, will be treated as if it didn't have any stamps at all, and your money will be wasted.

You can send almost anything by parcel post, up to 11 pounds in weight and 72 inches in combined length and girth.

You can't mail whisky, explosives, pistols nor infernal machines.

You can mail live queen bees, for instance, if they are boxed so they won't sting the mail man.

All packages under four ounces take a flat rate everywhere of 1 cent an ounce, regardless of distance. Over four ounces is considered one pound and all such packages take the pound rate, by zones.

Seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants get a special rate of 1 cent for each two ounces, regardless of distance.

"Local" packages—in the same city, on rural routes or between the two—will not be delayed if you fail to put on enough postage, but extra postage will be collected from the recipient.

All except local packages will be held up if they lack postage, and the shipper notified to send postage. If he cannot be located the addressee will be notified.

You must put your own name and address on the corner of the package you send, and put the word "To" before the name of the person you are sending it to.

You can write "Christmas Greeting," "Best Wishes," "Hold Till Christmas" or similar phrases on the outside if you want to.

By paying 10 cents extra you can insure the package, so that if it is lost en route you can get back its value up to $50.

By marking such an insured package "Return receipt requested" you will get a signed receipt from the addressee. This takes the place of registration.

A HORSE THAT REALLY WEPT.

For ten years two good friends, a man and a horse, had lived together; for ten years they had worked side by side, in rain or sunshine, the animal drawing the heavy cart and the man leading him. This tender friendship continued until illness came to put an end to it. The carter, for it was he who was the cause of proving that all good things must come to an end, was forced to leave his work and his companion.

Two years after this separation, the carter recognized his old friend. approached him, caressed him, and spoke to him. Then followed a most surprising and affecting occurence to those who saw it. The horse, hearing the voice of his old master, feeling the caress and the familiar head against his cheek, began to weep, yes, actually weep. Great tears flowed from his eyes and ran down his nostrils.

Can you deny, after having witnessed similar manifestations of intelligence and fidelity, that the horse reasons, and that he has a capacity for affection as great as ours, unquestionably greater than that of a large majority of men who pretend to care for horses but who only martyr and torture the poor animals?—Our Dumb Animals.

PENINSULA WAS ONCE THE HABITATION OF GIANTS.

Recent excavations indicate that the peninsula south of San Francisco once was inhabited by a race of giant stature. Professor Harold Heath of the zoology department of Stanford University has unearthed about two miles south of the University the skeletons of men all more than six feet in length.

A prehistoric village covering nearly two acres has been the scene of Professor Heath's investigations. Stone hammers, bone awls and ornaments found by his party indicate that their owners had attained considerable advancement in artisanship and civilization.

Numerous buried villages have been discovered on the peninsula, several in the city limits of San Francisco. Professor Heath says the inhabitants apparently were neither warlike nor energetic.

STUDY IS MADE OF NEW ROAD SYSTEM

SUPERVISORS DEVOTE DAY TO CONSIDERATION OF REPORT OF COUNTY ENGINEER.

Rights of Way Will Be Changed so As to Eliminate Heavy Grades, Permanent Work to Be Done.

The Board of Supervisors met Monday to give further consideration to the system of county roads that it is proposed to acquire through a bond issue. The report of Assistant Engineer R. M. Morton which had been carefully considered by the Good Roads Advisory Commission at a meeting at San Mateo last Friday and adopted almost in its entirety was submitted with accompanying recommendations.

The principal modifications were in regard to the width of roadways, and the chief elaboration was in the material and suggestion of the stretch of roadway from Concrete Bridge to Halfmoon Bay, on the Hillsborough and Halfmoon Bay road.

County Surveyor Neuman reported that there would be no difficulty in securing rights of way for the proposed changes from the old roads suggested by Morton.

In the First district there were some changes as to route, it being provided that the new road run westerly from South San Francisco, crossing the tracks north of Tanforan and joining the Mission Road.

Judge Cunningham was opposed to this route as was Supervisor Casey, as it would not meet with the wishes of the San Bruno people. It was decided to attempt to go through the Tanforan property and thence through the town of San Bruno. The surveyor was directed to ascertain at what cost a right of way could be secured.

Mr. Casey stated that it was possible that at the next meeting of the board resolutions would be presented at the request of the State Highway Commission, changing portions of the roadway of the Mission road. At his request consideration of the report as it related to the roads of the First township was continued.

In the Second township there were some changes from concrete to rock and minor changes as to location. The general character of the construction to be adopted in the Hillsborough to Halfmoon Bay road was macadam or concrete bed with asphaltum surface. A change was made in portions of this road, which will relieve the steep grades near the lower Spring Valley Lake and near Byrnes' store.

The grade of the Belmont-Crystal Spring road is also much improved by changing its route at a point near the Splivalo place and crossing the hills to the County Farm at a much lower elevation. The entire road is to be built of macadam.

In the road from Redwood City to Woodside, Mr. McEvoy suggested that a change at the beginning of the grade would result in eliminating the steep pitch at that place.

The continuation of the road from Woodside to La Honda was the subject of a lengthy discussion and in conclusion it was ordered that the surveyor survey a new right of way through the property of J. A. Folger, following the survey of that property made some fourteen years ago, but aiming to keep as far as possible away from the residence of Mr. Folger.

The surveys made in the Fourth and Fifth townships were acceptable to Messrs. Francis and Blackburn as well as the material to be used in those townships.

Morton's estimates, which come within the proposed bonding figures of $1,250,000, include the construction of roads through cities. The bridges and culverts were recommended of concrete and corrugated iron, with the exception of the long bridge at Tunitas creek.

Wedded in San Francisco

A marriage license was issued in San Francisco Tuesday to Charles Elmer Upton of El Granada, aged 38, and Ora A. Ralston of San Gregorio, aged 18. Miss Ralston is the eldest daughter of William Ralston, the popular farmer of San Gregorio. Mr. Upton is a teacher. Last week the San Francisco papers printed sensational articles to the effect that Mr. Ralston was bitterly opposed to the marriage. Mr. Upton brands these statements as untrue.

NEW YEAR GIVEN NOISY WELCOME IN THIS CITY

The passing of 1912 and the birth of 1913 were the occasion of a noisy demonstration in this city Tuesday night. The streets were crowded with people at midnight and when the clock struck 12 whistles were sounded, bells rung, horns blown and an aggregation of various sound-producing instruments were made violent use of producing a combination of sound that was ear-splitting to the extreme.

There was much hilarity, a general exchanging of happy good wishes, and although the saloons were open there was no disorder.

The Eagles' ball at the Alhambra drew its usual crowd, many of whom came from out of town, and all enjoyed themselves.

A large number of local people spent the evening at Bernasque's where a splendid supper was served. There were many house parties and all told the passing of the old year and the advent of the new made a pleasant and memorable event in Redwood City.

GAME PROTECTORS MEET AT SANTA CRUZ SATURDAY

It is doubtful if any convention ever accomplished as much work in one day as did the Greater Fish and Game Protective Association, representing the Fifth district, which met at Santa Cruz last Saturday.

Delegates were present from the counties of Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and San Louis Obispo. The representatives from this county were Franklin Swart and Henry Beeger. R. F. Johnson of Monterey was elected president and Prof. W. P. Taylor of Berkeley, secretary. Taylor was elected delegate to the State convention at Sacramento, which will frame proposed new game laws and revisions of the old. He will present the recommendations adopted at the Santa Cruz convention.

Some of the proposed reforms are: To close the dove season indefinitely; to close the rail season indefinitely, as suggested by the local sportsmen; prohibit the sale of all wild game. Deer season for August and September and meat to be shipped from open season counties to closed season counties. The limit on ducks reduced to 25 per day and fifty per week, and not to be sold. Quail limit reduced to twenty per day and forty per week. Only Tahoe trout permitted to be sold. Steel heads can not be taken in tide water during closed season. Salmon can be imported during closed seasons. Crabs can not be sold nor transferred. Abalones not to be shipped from State, which will affect canneries at Monterey. Pismo clams must be twelve inches in circumference and limit is reduced to twenty-five in one day from two hundred.

The ordinance of this county protecting abalones was adopted as a whole.

The convention recommended that game wardens and assistants be placed on the civil service list. It is also recommended that a new law be passed prohibiting the taking of game within the mile limit circling the California redwood park

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Give Your County A Holiday Present By Joining The Development Association

Your home merchants are your good friends, ever ready to extend a helping hand in time of need.

If this community is good enough for you to live in and make your money in, it ought to be good enough for you to spend it in.

While women are not generally considered expert mathematicians, it is usually admitted that they know how to make attractive figures.

AN INEXPENSIVE EXPERIMENT.

While Redwood Creek is not altogether a sightly stream—and probably at its best would hardly be pointed out as one of the attractions of the city—we would suggest to the City Trustees that a little systematic effort might operate to remove at least some of its most objectionable features. For some time past residents along the creek have complained of the unpleasant odors which arise at low tide. while rubbish of all kinds is left by the receeding waters to disfigure the most prominent portion of the creek, just below the Broadway bridge where it is most open to the view of visitors. As an experiment requiring but a very small outlay, would it not be well to try a frequent and systematic operation of the flood gates as a remedy for both these conditions.

DYNAMITE AND DIRECT ACTION.

The conviction at Indianapolis of thirty-eight of the forty labor leaders charged with complicity in a nation-wide dynamite conspiracy was a deserved and notable triumph for law and order against organized anarchy rooted in false and hazardous philosophy of direct action. These men-guilty as the jury says they were—may have proceeded in their lawless course from the mistaken notion that they were benefitting the working class. Indeed some apologists, taking the latter view of the issue, have even advanced the idea that the convicted men regarded themselves as heroes fighting the battles of labor.

Granting all this and even more to be true, if guilty they were nevertheless dangerous to themselves, a peril to their class, and inimical to the social order. Had these men been the hirelings of the interests they opposed, as some minds more scunning than sensible might conceive, the working class would have been quick to observe that such direct action was not in the interest of the working class.

It follows, then, that dynamiting cannot be in the interest of the working class, no matter which side employs it. The interests of labor are not to be forwarded in any such manner, and leaders who advise or countenance resort to such unlawful exercise of force are the greatest foes organized labor has to contend with.

SEWARDISING THE NEBRASKAN.

The continued gossip—possibly inspired—about the entrance of Col. Bryan into the cabinet as Secretary of State, suggests that possibly Governor Wilson has been considering the life of the Great Emansipator, remarks the Gbobe-Democrat.

If so, it may not be too much to hope that he will seek to emulate Lincoln's example in other things as well as in the making up of his Cabinet. While this would undoubtedly be a disapointment to many of the spoils-of-office class, it would assure him a more satisfactory place in history.

Lincoln's chief opponent in the memorable campaign of 1850 was William H. Seward, leader of the extreme abolition wing of the party. Mr, Seward was a radical and extremely critical of Mr. Lincoln's conservatism and reluctance to embark on radical measures. Seward and the radicals of the party were in favor of immediate abolition, and threatened to make no end of trouble for the incoming admisistration and the new party. Lincoln solved the difficulty and secured the support of the radical wing by inviting Seward into his Cabinet. Instead of a powerful and active critic and opponent on the outside, he thus secured an earnest and active assistant on the inside and under his control.

While Colonel Bryan can hardley be classed as a Seward, and while his radicalisms are far from such issues as the abolition of slavery, nevertheless, as a tree lance he would be apt to put many a puncture in the presidential hide and might so disrupt the party as to bring confusion and failure to the administration. If, however, the president-elect could Sewardise him by putting him in the Cabinet and keeping his thumb on him, his political horizon would brighten immensly.

But Colonel Bryan is not a Seward, as has been remarked, neither, be it whispered, is Governor Wilson a Lincoln. Yet he may be going to try to be. If this is his aim, his first move will be to invite the Nebraska fly into his parlor.

"BEN HUR" TO BE STAGED IN SAN FRANCISCO THEATER

All the Oriental splendor of the Indian Durbar which King George V of England journeyed to Delhi in India to take part in, will be brought to the doors of San Francisco in Klaw & Erlander's elaborate new production of "Ben-Hur," which inaugurates an engagement of two weeks at the Columbia Theatre in San Francisco on Monday evening January 6. Never before in the history of the stage has there been so much wealth expended on the presentation of a historical spectacle. Flashing jewels, dazzling armor, magnificent robes, superb draperies, the marvelous rugs of the far East, the costly furnishings of two thousand years ago—all these things are combined in the revival. Klaw and Erlanger, the owners of this most wonderful piece of theatrical property, have given it a production which in magnitude and spectacular grandeur eclipse any production shown up to date on the American stage or in the theatre of any other country. The magnitude of the scenic settings is of such a nature that there are only a few theatres with stages large enough to accommodate the equipment. Carpenters, electricians and a horde of other workers are now in possession of the Columbia Theatre stage, getting ready for this production, and when the curtain does rise on the solemn and beautiful scene in the desert where the Wise Men are waiting for the signal, the Star of Bethlehem, to point them the way to the Messiah, the spectator will view the spectacular achievement of American stagecraft. Klaw & Erlanger taxed the enormous resources of their theatrical plant in every department in building this new equipment. Their scenic artists and costumers, their engineers and electroicians worked for one solid year in combination and under direction of artists and historians, antiquarians and scholars, to accomplish the seemingly impossible, the effacement of former memories of "Ben-Hut" productions. With this new spectacle they have built for themselves a monument as enduring as the name of Shakespeare in the glories and beauties of the new setting for the greatest story the world has ever known, "The Tale of the Christ."

During the "Ben-Hur" season at the Columbia theatre, no performances will be given on Sunday, but matinees are scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday each week.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS TO SING IN THIS CITY.

Don't fail to hear the "Appomattox Boys' Choir" of Oakland at the Women's Relief Corps entertainment to be given at the Alhambra next Wednesday evening. This famous choir is led by W. R. Thomas, Department commander of the G. A. R., and former resident of this city. It is composed of veterans of the Civil war whose ages average over seventy years. This part of the program is well worth the price of admission, which is 25 and 35 cents for reserved seats.

Other splendid numbers are on the program which is as follows:

Instrumental solo.

Selection, "Appomattox Boys' Choir."

Select reading, Miss Harriet Merrill.

Song, Frankie McAuliffe.

Fancy dancing, Misses Hazel and Mildred Lamb.

Recitation, (impersonation) "The Tramp Soldier," Ben Zimmerman

Selections, "Appomattox Boys' Choir."

Monologue, Mr. Roller of Palo Alto.

Vocal solo, Mr. O'Brien of San Francisco.

Recitation, Roger Mendes.

Spanish dance, Florence Gilbert, Viola Kanein and Violet Curran.

Selection, "Appomattox Boys' Choir."

Vocal solo, Mrs. H. R. Prisbrey.

Monologue, Mr. Roller of Palo Alto.

Vocal solo, Mr. O'Brien of San Francisco.

Selections, "Appomattox Boys' Choir."

Vocal solo, Mrs. J. Kearse.

A social dance will follow the program.

Unusually good houses have been the rule at the Bell Theater during the past week, and these have been treated to some splendid attractions. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Flynn was presented with the handsome doll given away by Marcus' Department Store. The feature of the program for next Monday and Tuesday evenings will be "Frenzied Finance," a strong dramatic presentation which is said to be one of the best films yet produced. The usual popular prices will prevail all week, notwithstanding the special attractions.

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Picked Up By Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

SAN BRUNO NOTES.

Sometime during last Monday night burglars entered the cigar store of Antonio Silvera, opposite the depot and made a good haul of smokers articles. Entrance to the store was gained by using a jimmy on the rear door. Once inside the place the intruders helped themselves to everything in sight, taking practically all of the stock on the shelves, the loss amounting to about $50. Fortunately the burglars overlooked some money in the drawer and a considerable amount of new stock which had just been received. No clue to the robbers has been found.

Considerable interest in this section has been manifested in the annual exhibit of the San Mateo County Poultry Association, which will be held January 23d, 24th and 25th at the San Mateo Athletic Hall near the depot. Any person owning poultry which they wish to enter may do so by addressing A. R. Schroeder, San Gregorio, or H. Mathiesen of the Third Addition, San Bruno. To be a success in poultry raising it would pay any person to attend the lecture by Prof. Jaffa on January 25th at 3 o'clock, when feeding for the production of eggs and other topics pertaining to the successful care of poultry will be treated in a scientific manner.

N. Beltramo has purchased a fine span of horses. They will be drawing the water wagon next summer.

The local camp of the Woodmen of the World moved to the Carpenters Hall last Friday night and will hereafter hold meetings there. The Y. M. I. have also engaged the hall for two nights in each month. Two more beneficial societies have committees investigating and may do likewise.

Mrs. A. Seivers and her daughter Hattie have returned from Louisville, Kentucky, where they have been visiting relatives for several months. They say that in their travels they have seen no place like San Bruno, and they are glad to get back again.

The contractors on the state highway commenced operations at Baden Crossing The south end of the road is expcteed to be finished in about ten days.

Ed. Times-Gazette: Through the medium of your esteemed paper, as a resident and soon to be taxpayer, I wish to voice, in conjunction with others of our townspeople, the prevailing sentiment as regards the routes of the county highway. Not taking an active part in any of the agitations which usually beset a community, I have not, even upon inquiry among my fellow townspeople, been able to learn what the board of governors or the advisory board was doing for San Bruno until in the Times-Gazette I read an account of the meeting before the board of supervisors a week ago last Monday. I was surprised to learn that the advisory board met at intervals during the last three months devising the plans that would ultimately be placed before the peuple for consideration, and that at no time was San Bruno ropresented—San Bruno with its population of 2,500 people. The eighth largest tax paying district in the county without a voice in this important deliberation! Her future welfare at stake, and approximately $70,000 to pay as her share of the tax for the building of these roads. This is taxation without representation with a vengeance. In the final analysis, San Bruno is to be cut off entirely from the outside world. Judging from the report, it appears that someone has been very active in endeavoring to turn all the traffic away from the town. The people are a unit in demanding that the highway as it now exists must be adhered to in the proposal. In any event, no compromise will be accepted unless a continuous roadway runs through the town at both ends. The people here believe that the road leading from San Bruno is worthy of consideration, notwithstanding any report to the contrary.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH PARISH ENJOYS HOLIDAY ACVIVITY

Evidence of new life has marked all phases of the Christmas season at St. Peter's church. The services were beautiful and well attended. There were more communions made than ever before. Very many generous offerings were made to the church. A handsome brass alms basin from Shreve's was presented by the young girls of St. Valentine's Guild. The Christmas tree party on Saturday evening at the Guild hall was a great success. The satisfaction from all this is that St. Peter's church, which has been so long neglected, is now coming into its own again. and will soon grow into its proper life and activity. There are 250 Epsicopalians in and around Redwood City.. When all of these rally to the support of the church and resume the habit of church attendance, we shall have the strongest parish on the peninsula.

SHERIFF MANSFIELD FACES BIG SUIT FOR FALSE ARREST

Lester D. Danz late yesterday afternoon brought suit in the Superior Court against Sheriff J. H. Mansfield to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 and costs. The complaint alleges that Lester Danz was imprisoned in the county jail for a period of seven days and during that time his mother or other relatives were not permitted to see him. No charge was filed against him. He was not found guilty of any crime. The arrest was made on November 27 and the prisoner was not released until December 4 and then only by Judge Buck on habeas corpus proceedings. On November 25, Chris Stader was assaulted by some unknown person at Beresford and two days after Danz was arrested for the commission of the crime, though there was absolutely no evidence to connect him with the affair. Danz, who is only 18 years of age, resides with his mother at Beresford and bears a good reputation. Yesterday the sheriff made a vain effort to avoid the service of the summons and was followed several blocks before he would submit to the service by a brother of young Danz. Nate Coghlan and Attorney Bloch of San Francisco are attorneys for the plaintiff.

POPULAR LOCAL VOCALIST GIVEN SIGNAL RECOGNITION

The following news item, clipped from a recent issue of the Sacramento Bee, will be read with interest by a large number of Redwood City people:

"It is always pleasing to pass on the good things that befall those whose ambition leads them to strive for the heights, and the good fortune which has come to Miss Edna Zimmerman of this city may be accounted one of the favors dropped from a clear sky into fertile ground. Miss Zimmerman was so fortunate as to secure a hearing with Mme. Gerville Reache, the celebrated French contralto whose concert before the Saturday Club this week proved such a rare delight, Miss Zimmerman not only singing for the famous artist, but being accorded an interview of an hour and a half in which Mme. Reache expressed deep enthusiasm for the local young singer's voice, declaring it very much out of the ordinary in range and quality and offering to take Miss Zimmerman's training in charge at her personal expense, teaching her herself should she decide to go on to New York within a short time. Mme Reache is herself going direct to the Eastern metropolis to begin her operatic season at the Metropolitan, and Miss Zimmerman hopes to join her as soon as her arrangements can be completed."

The good fortune of Miss Zimmerman will be good news to a large circle of friends in Redwood City, where her splendid ability has added charm to many public occasions. Those competent to judge of the possibilities of her voice have long predicted for Miss Zimmerman a prominent place in the musical world.

NEW LOCAL INDUSTRY WILL ENLARGE PLANT

The asbestos factory that has been in operation south of this city for the past three weeks has been proven a great success. The chemist in charge had been experimenting for some time on the manufacture of this article by a new process that would cheapen the cost of producing the article. He shipped a sample of the material to the east some time ago and on Monday last received word that it was up to the standard. It was pronounced a success. Those behind the project are naturally elated and are going to spend large sums on the present plant. Contracts will be awarded at once for the construction of a three story concrete building to cost $75,000 and other structures. The plant when completed is to cost in the neighborhood of one million dollars and three hundred men are to be employed the year around. The new method of manufacturing the article will reduce the price very materially so that there will be a big demand for the local product. The establishment of this plant in Redwood City means a great deal for the prosprity and growth of this city. It is understood that kindred factories are already seeking sites near the new plant and that in a few days deals will be consumated whereby at least two more factories will start in that portion of the city.

DALY CITY WATER USERS DENIED RATE REDUCTION

A decision was rendered yesterday by Judge Dooling of Hollister who heard the Daly City water cases. The city passed an ordinance some time ago fixing the water rate and immediately the three concerns furnishing the inhabitants with water applied to the court to have the law declared null and void as the rate established was entirely too low and not sufficient to allow a fair interest on the money invested in the water plants. Judge Dooling held that the contention of plaintiffs was right. Following is the court decision in full.

These three cases involving the validity of an ordinance of defendant City of Daly City were consolidated and tied together. The ordinance is one fixing rates to be charged for water furnished the inhabitants of Daly City, and each plaintiff has a water system and supplies water to about one-third of such inhabitants, so that the three plaintiffs combined supply all of such inhabitants with water. Testimony was taken as to the value of the plants, the necessary expenses, and the revenue of each of plaintiffs, from which, and from the admissions of the answers the following appears:

As to plaintiff J. W. Bloom, the testimony shows the value of the plant to be over $25000.00, the operating expenses to be over $4000.00 (rejecting Bloom's salary of $100.00 per month) and the revenue that might be collected under the ordinance less than $2500.00. The answer admits the value of the plant to be $25,000 the expenses to be $2500, and admits that 3 per cent would be a fair return on the investment. The amount to be realized under the ordinance would not pay the running expenses.

A to plaintiff Crocker Estate Co., the testimony shows the value to be over $25,000, the operating expenses to be about $5000, and the revenue less than $3000. The answer admits a value of $15000. operating expenses of $2000 and depreciation of $500.00. The revenue would not pay more than 3-5 of the operating expenses provided, and but little more than the operating expenses and depreciation admitted.

As to plaintiff Vista Grande Water Co. the testimony shows a value of over $20,000, operating expenses of $4852.23 and a revenue of $4697.58. The answer admits a value of $10000, operating expenses of $2000.00 and depreciation of $500.00.

The revenue mentioned in the last two cases is the revenue collected on the rates fixed by plaintiffs themselves, and would be less under the ordinance. The ordinance was passed by the defendant without any investigation as to values, expenses, revenue or other wise and the main defense to the present action is that the ordinance was agreed to by plaintiffs. But the evidence shows the contrary to be the fact. As the rates proposed will not even pay operating expenses, and as they were not agreed to, and were adopted without investigation it is idle to inquire what if any rate of interest should be allowed by the ordinance to be earned on the value of the plants. The answer in every case concedes a substantial value to the plants, upon which it would seem, unless the total value was grossly disproporaionate to a value for which water could be supplied to defendants inhabitants, return should be allowed. An opinion by the Court upon this question would be of no service as the question is not involved in the pleadings and case as made. It does appear that all the plants are necessary under existing circumstances to supply water to all the inhabitants of defendants. What would be the reasonable value of a single plant supplying all the inhabitants, what would the expenses of conducting such, and what the revenues properly derivable therefrom are doubtless interesting questions, but they are questions for the future and do not arise under the pleadings and proofs here presented. Upon the case as made plaintiffs are entitled to the relief prayed for, andsuch will be granted.

M. T. DOOLING,
Judge.

The young men of the town are making arrangements for a mask ball to be given in Triumph hall Saturday evening, January 18th. This will be the first affair of the kind to be given in Menlo for some time.

In the parsonage of the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas, Palo Alto, at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, Miss Margaret Wooster of Stanford University, became the bride of Walter Roy Hockabout, electrical engineer at the municipal water works. Rev. Joseph M. Gleason, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Hockabout left for Los Angeles, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Palo Alto. The bride recently resigned her position in the Stanford postoffice, where she was employed for several years.

Court Menlo, Ancient Order of Foresters will install its officers for the term next Wednesday evening. At this meeting will take place a reunion of all the old members and after the routine business a sumptous banquet is to be enjoyed by all. Several of the grand officers will be present to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable in the history of the local court. The officers to be installed are: Thomas Duncan, P. C. R.; Charles Forwick, chief ranger; Fred Hummell, sub chief ranger; M. F. Duff, treasurer; Frank Hutchinson, financial secretary; W. T. Casey, recording secretary; M. H. Walsh, senior woodward. Trustees, John O'Brien, Fred Seal and Wm. Wright.

A reorganization of the Menlo Park fire department is sadly needed. The recent fires in the neighborhood have caused the citizens to sit up and take notice and to give some thought to the only fire protection we have. The department should elect new officers and make some attempt in securing more apparatus and putting in more hydrants. It is incumbent upon the citizens to get together for the purpose of equipping the department with all modern means of fighting conflagrations such as we have been having lately. A meeting should be called at once to take steps in this direction so that the people may feel that their property has some protection from the ravages of fire.

John O'Farrell's home was totally destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning. The fire department was on hand early but the flames had gained such headway that the firemen could do nothing to save the building. Nothing in the house was saved except the piano and a few small articles of furniture. The fire was caused by a defective flue. The loss has been partly covered by insurance which has been adjusted and paid. Mr. O'Farrell and family have the deepest sympathy of the community in their loss. They have moved into the McNalley cottage, recently vacated by J. J. Downey, on the county road. It is understood that Mr. O'Farrell will not be disturbed in his position as gardener of the courthouse grounds next Monday when the new board of supervisors are seated.

Frank Buelna and wife have moved to Palo Alto. Mr. Buelna is employed by the Federal Wireless Telegraph Company which has an office at the College town and maintains its principal station at South San Francisco. Beach Thompson, president of the company, arrived in New York during the week from Europe where he went to interest capitalists in the concern. The British group has bought the rights to the Poulsen system for the British empire and such other rights not previously sold. Thompson arranged with the British capitalists for the organization of an Anglo-American wireless company to handle all telegraphic business which can be secured between the United States and European points; also for the organization of a large company to be owned in part by the Englishmen and part by the Americans; the two groups, however, dividing the field of operations between them.

COUNTRY NEWS NOTES.

Colma Cullings.

COLMA, January 1—The holiday season was spent very enjoyably here. Prosperity was in evidence at almost every home. Numerous presents were received and good cheer was in every heart. The last signs of bitterness engendered by politics faded away and "peace on earth and good will to men" really prevails once more. Those who still harbor grudges never will have much sway. There were many famous Christmas and New Year feasts, all of which were heartily enjoyed, especially the ones at the home of Mrs. Ernesta Belli and family where the writer was regaled, as he has been for the last dozen years. The table was loaded with the choicest of Italian dainties to each of which everyone of the happy gathering present did ample justice. For nearly everyone present a toast was called for and the responses were received with enthusiastic applause. The following sat at the Belli festal board: Mrs. Ernesta Belli, Mr. and Mrs. U. Granucci and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Granucci, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Altieri, Miss Diva Belli, Don Funge, Thomas Stefani, Evo Androceoli, Mrs. A. H. Davidson, Olive Davidson, W. J. Savage.

The schools will reopen on the 13th instant. The teachers are spending their vacations at their various homes and the children are making the most of the fine weather.

During the holiday period Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Beattie entertained the following: Mrs. Catherine Beattie, the doctor's mother, Miss Annie Beattie and Mrs. C. E. Benjamin, his two sisters, all from Georgetown. The time was pleasantly spent riding about in the automobile, going to the theatre and calling upon friends. They had a very good time for which the weather was favorable.

Silvio Belli, who is now successfully engaged in the hotel business at St. Helena, spent the holidays with his family at this place. There was a friendly greeting for him on every side.

B. F. Green and family who moved away from here about a year ago, have returned to reside permanently. They are so attached to this locality that no other place seems like home to them. Their numerous friends are very glad they have come back.

The Merced Daily Sun of recent date published the following: Supervisor J. T. Casey of Colma, San Mateo county, accompanied by Philip Fahy and J. H. Dennis, also of Colma, was a Merced visitor today. Mr. Casey is autoing through this valley to get some new ideas on road building and maintenance. He is boasted of in his home county as a supervsior who has improved the roads of his district more than any other man who has been in the position and Mr. Casey intends to keep up his good work and improve with new ideas. He will go from here to Modesto.

A great many people attended church on Christmas Day. At the 6 o'clock services St. Ann's church was crowded to the doors. A large number received communion. Last Sunday there was a Christmas tree festival for the children.

San Gregorio.

SAN GREGORIO, Jan. 1—James Owndorf of San Francisco made a short trip to San Gregorio last week.

S. A. Ponce and family left Saturday to spend a week with friends and relatives in Mayfield.

T. E. Roe and son Clarence were in San Francisco for several days lately visiting relatives.

John M. Praeder drove to Pescadero Sunday last.

Miss Pauline Bonzani returned to Berkeley Wednesday accompanied by her sisters, Mary and Edith Bonzani.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ralston have moved into their new cottage in West San Gregorio.

Antone Silva, the barber, spent Christmas with his parents at Warm Springs.

Mrs. H. C. Stratton was the guest of her brother, Herman Frey and family in Pescadero last Saturday.

Antone Andrade was a visitor to Redwood City last week.

Woodside Notes

WOODSIDE, January 1—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nelson entertained on Christmas the following: Mr. and Mrs Harry Jamieson and son of Watsonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Kipp and son of Kohl; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Springer and children; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schonig; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Korn; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Carlson of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moody of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Perry of Santa Cruz; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, and Mr. Reuben Taylor. It was a happy family reunion. A good dinner was served and a good time had by all.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silva of Woodside.

Crazy Man at Large.

Monday afternoon a demented man made his appearance at East Greenwood and terrorized the neighborhood with threats to commit murder. John O'Connell phoned to the sheriff's office for help and Officer Shields responded, taking Constable Walsh with him. They located the man in question and after considerable maneuvering succeeded in overpowering him and bringing him to this city. He said that his name was Charles Hutinger but refused to give any further information concerning himself. As he was unquestionably crazy, the asylum at Stockton was communicated with and it was stated by the officials that a man of the same name had escaped from that place Sunday. Tuesday an officer came from Stockton and returned Lutinger to the asylum.

To Please the Palate
is our aim in serving meat—to retain the fine flavor Nature bestows, not to let it go to waste, as some meatshops do. With prolonging this true tale, it may be set down for a fact that here is to be found a first-class place to purchase beef, mutton, lamb, ham, poultry and game, to give your table good credit with household and guest.
